McGinley Group launches new financial executive search division following investment in Endeavour

London, United Kingdom: McGinley Group Limited, one of the UK's largest groups of specialist recruitment businesses, today announced its investment in Endeavour Human Capital Solutions (EHCS) as a new trading partner, adding strategic Executive Search solutions for the finance and banking sectors to McGinley's recruitment services portfolio.

The strategic investment in EHCS enables McGinley to extend its services into the top-level financial and banking sectors, and deliver a tailor-made search and recruitment service to place the highest calibre candidates on behalf of clients in these markets.

EHCS is a specialist financial services search firm with a global perspective that works on behalf of its clients to achieve maximum results in the hiring process. It has a team of industry specialists working in across a range of specialisms, including Asset Management, Foreign Exchange, Corporate Finance, Audit and BPI.

Dermot McGinley, Group Managing Director of McGinley Group said, "The investment we have made in Endeavour Human Capital Solutions enables McGinley to deliver an advanced and highly professional executive search offering in the UK and Europe. The new service provides a discreet and highly tailored approach to ensure a seamless placement of senior personnel in the financial and banking markets and we are excited to enter this space."

Richard Connolly, partner at Endeavour Human Capital Solutions said: "As a trading partner to McGinley, we are fully committed to servicing our clients to ensure we match the highest calibre individual to the recruiting organisation. McGinley has an esteemed reputation in the recruitment space, and the addition of our executive search adds a new dimension to the business' service offerings. We look forward to working closely with the team moving forward."
